INNOVATION MINDSET INDEX®

The Innovation Mindset Index™ is a strength-based psychometric assessment that is mapped to five different Innovation Mindsets to help understand each person's style of innovation.

ELEMENT X™

ELEMENT X™ is a self-report assessment that enables individuals, teams, and organizations to maintain an awareness of their overall workplace wellbeing via an integrated framework consisting of 9 elements and 36 sub-drivers, thereby providing an extremely comprehensive and contemporary view of wellbeing.

ELEMENT X™ - Individual Report

This report also summarizes the emotions or moods experienced most significantly by individuals at this point in time.

ELEMENT X™ - Group Report

Group Baseline reports help to recognize organizational priorities for wellbeing by identifying elements that need more focus or development, as well as those that need to be sustained because the employees feel relatively more satisfied with them.

TRUE COLORS

True Colors is a psychometric tool that helps participants identify their personality types across 4 colors: Blue, Orange, Gold & Green, allowing for self-awareness around who they are, as well as an appreciation of others, and in turn improving team communication, collaboration, and interactions in the workplace.

THE WINNING TEAM

WORKING GENIUS

The Working Genius is a powerful psychometric assessment tool that is partly a personality assessment and partly a productivity tool for teams. This quick 10-min assessment tool helps people discover and leverage their natural gifts and 'genius' thereby allowing them to thrive in their work and also enables teams looking to enhance their performance, improve collaboration, and capitalize on the unique strengths of team members.

THE GROUP STYLE INVENTORY™

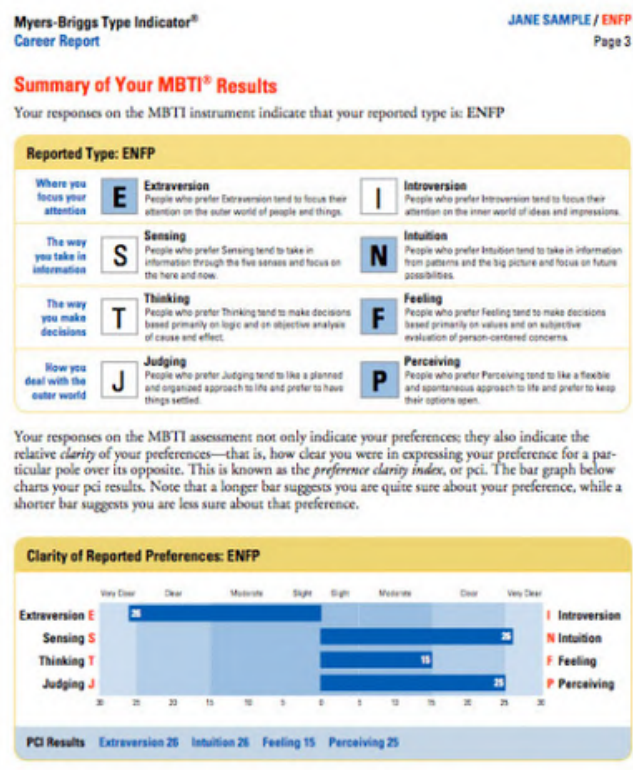

The Group Styles Inventory (GSI) is a powerful tool designed to unlock the true potential of a team. In any organization, group dynamics play a crucial role in determining the overall productivity, efficiency, and success of the team. Understanding the unique characteristics and preferences of your team members can foster a harmonious and collaborative work environment, leading to greater achievements and innovation. The tool provides a valid and reliable measure of how people in groups interact with each other and work as a team to solve problems by delving into the individual working styles, communication preferences, and problem-solving approaches of each team member.

MYERS-BRIGGS® TYPE INDICATOR

The Myers-Briggs Type Indicator® (MBTI®) assessment is a tool that helps people increase their self-awareness, understand and appreciate differences in others, and apply personality insights to improve their personal and professional effectiveness. The assessment identifies people as one of 16 MBTI personality types. Each type reflects how a person naturally prefers to direct and receive energy, take in information, make decisions, and approach the outside world. Knowing this provides a powerful framework for understanding and relating to people.

16 PERSONALITY FACTORS®

The 16 Personality Factors or 16PF® questionnaire is a robust, reliable measure of 16 personality traits that describe and predict a person's behaviour in a variety of contexts. The instrument is used to select, develop and motivate the people who make organisations thrive. Interpreted by a qualified practitioner, the 16PF® instrument provides a breadth of insights across a range of professional contexts such as – Recruitment, Leadership Development, Executive Coaching, Career Development, Succession Planning, Outplacement – to objectively understand who people are by getting a view of their whole personality, not just the behaviour they exhibit in professional contexts.

16PF® SIXTEEN PERSONALITY FACTORS

Get the full picture with the world's most comprehensive personality tool

The 16 Personality Factors (16PF) questionnaire is a robust, reliable measure of personality traits that is used to select, develop and motivate the people who make organisations thrive. The insights it provides are authenticated by over 2,700 independent, peer-reviewed research articles, making it a highly reliable, accurate predictor of future behaviour and likely success.

The 16PF's pioneering author Raymond Cattell was the first to identify the broad dimensions of personality known as the Big Five, a widely accepted theory upon which many instruments are now based. Using the original and superlative measure of personality brings you the confidence and credibility you need to make important people decisions.

The 16PF assessment provides an unrivalled breadth of insight, helping you to understand objectively who people are by getting a view of their whole personality, not just the behaviour they exhibit in professional contexts. This reduces the risk in decisions about key roles and promotions, at all levels, providing a perspective that is difficult to obtain from interview alone.

The assessment can also act as a point of reference throughout a career, identifying development needs so that a person's full potential can be realised.

Revealing 16 personality factors that people recognise immediately, and providing a range of accessible reports that can be tailored to your organisation's needs, the 16PF tool is indispensable in making your people the catalyst for success.

“We chose the 16PF over other trait-based tools because the language used and the way the information is presented is accessible and engaging, and because the theory and results are very resonant with people, even if they know nothing of psychometrics.”

Ernest Ruhl, Head of Training, Team Stephens Insurance Ltd

There are five different Hogan Assessments:
